FINAL APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES OF FOLEY & LARDNER LLP AS SPECIAL
MEDICAID AND MEDICARE COUNSEL TO THE DEBTOR

Foley & Lardner LLP (“Foley”), as former Special Medicaid and Medicare Counsel to Golfview Developmental Center, Inc. (the “Debtor”), respectfully submits this Final Application for Allowance of Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses of Foley (the “Application”) for final allowance of legal fees in the amount of $226,621.50 and expenses in the amount of $6,176.58 incurred from July 7, 2005 through July 31, 2008 (the “Aggregate Period”) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 330, 331 and Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(7). In support of this Application, Foley respectfully represents as follows:

II. Background

1. On July 7, 2005, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. On September 30, 2005, the Debtor filed its Application to Employ Foley & Lardner as Special Counsel (the “Retention Application”).
3. On October 12, 2005, this Court entered an Order granting the Retention Application and authorizing the employment and retention of Foley as Special Medicaid and Medicare Counsel to the Debtor.

4. On July 14, 2008, the firm of Polsinelli Shalton Flanigan Suelthaus PC (“Polsinelli”) filed its Application for Order Authorizing Employment and Retention of Special Medicaid and Medicare Counsel, seeking to substitute Polsinelli in place of Foley as Special Medicaid and Medicare Counsel to the Debtor.

5. On July 16, 2008, this Court entered an Order Authorizing Employment and Retention of Special Medicaid and Medicare Counsel for Debtor, which authorized the employment of Polsinelli, and terminated the employment of Foley.

6. The Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A). Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409. The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are §§ 330 and 331 of the Code and Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

III. Relief Requested

6. This is Foley’s final application for allowance of fees and expenses pursuant to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 331. The fees and expenses for which compensation and reimbursement are sought are actual, reasonable and necessary, within the meaning of § 330(a) of the Code.

A. Compensation of Foley’s Fees

7. Section 330(a) of the Code governs compensation of professionals in bankruptcy matters. See In the Matter of UNR Industries, Inc., 986 F.2d 207, 208 (7th Cir. 1993). Section 330(a) provides, in relevant part, as follows:

the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

(E) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3). “In section 300 and its legislative history Congress expressed its intent that compensation in bankruptcy matters be commensurate with the fees awarded for comparable services in non-bankruptcy cases.” UNR Industries, Inc., 986 F.2d at 209.

8. Foley has rendered substantial and valuable professional services that have resulted in a benefit to the creditors of the Debtor’s estate, and that were beneficial to the administration of this case. Foley respectfully submits that its services were provided with the requisite level of skill and were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, issues, and tasks addressed. Foley has charged its customary fees, which are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title. The amount sought in compensation is in line with awards in similar cases and is commensurate with the professional standing, ability and expertise of Foley and the professionals who have participated in this case. Accordingly, the compensation requested herein reflects the reasonable value of the services provided to the Debtor.

9. During the Aggregate Period, the following attorneys and para-professionals performed services in this case, at the rates and for the number of hours indicated as follows:

Attorneys	Hours	Avg. Hourly Rate	Amount
Jonathan E. Aberman	10.6	$455.00	$4,822.50

Katherine Siddon-O'Brien	0.7	$320.00	$224.00
Frances A. Tretter	24.7	$280.00	$6,916.00

Para-professionals

Trisha R. Denson	7.5	$81.66	$613.00
Nicholas Gerstle	0.6	$70.00	$42.00
Katherine E. Hall	14.8	$167.32	$2,388.00
Michael S. Rhinehart	1.2	$45.00	$54.00

Total	397.5		$166,621.50

10. In addition to the above hourly fees incurred by Foley professionals and para-professionals, Foley also incurred fixed fees in the amount of $60,000, as described in detail in Foley's Third Interim Fee Application, filed on February 21, 2007, through the retention of Bruce Simon Consulting ("Bruce Simon") to render substantial and valuable professional services to the Debtor.

11. During the Aggregate Period, Foley acted as special health care counsel to the Debtor. Foley's services to the Debtor have included (i) meeting and lobbying the Illinois Department of Human Services and the Illinois legislature for a grant to help offset Medicaid funding shortfalls caused by a rate freeze on the capital component in the Medicaid rate or (ii) in the alternative, to increase the state's Medicaid rate to cover increased staffing costs and capital costs; (iii) negotiating a higher Medicaid reimbursement rate from the Illinois Department of Human Services in order to increase revenue and (iv) preparing Foley's fee applications.

12. Foley has been mindful of the need to avoid undue legal fees in this case and has taken all reasonable steps to provide cost-effective representation while rendering services with the highest degree of skill and professionalism.

13. Foley has endeavored to eliminate duplication of effort by giving primary responsibility of the case to one partner, while staffing other attorneys on an as-needed basis.

14. During the Aggregate Period, Foley professionals provided a total of 397.5 hours of legal services to the Debtor in this case.

B. Reimbursement of Expenses

15. Pursuant to § 330(a)(1)(B) of the Code, the Court may award a professional “reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.” 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(B). Accordingly, Foley seeks reimbursement of the actual, necessary expenses that it incurred during the Aggregate Period. During the Aggregate Period, Foley incurred out-of-pocket expenses in connection with its representation of the Debtor in this case in the aggregate amount of $6,176.58. Each expense was actually and necessarily required in the representation of the Debtor.

16. Charges for electronic research, overnight delivery, postage, long distance telephone calls, and other out-of-pocket disbursements are based on the actual amounts paid by Foley for those services. Foley typically charges its clients $0.10 per copy and $0.50 per page for facsimiles sent.

IV. General Matters

17. All of the professional services for which compensation is requested herein were performed by Foley for and on behalf of the Debtor and not on behalf of any other person or entity.

18. No agreement or understanding exists between Foley and any other person for sharing compensation received in connection with this case nor has any other person or entity agreed to provide Foley with compensation for the legal services described herein.

V. Notice

19. A copy of this Application has been served on the Debtor and its counsel, the Office of the United States Trustee, the Debtor's pre and post-petition lender and all other parties requesting notice of all papers and pleadings in this bankruptcy case.

WHEREFORE, Foley respectfully requests entry of an Order granting to Foley the following:

- a. Approval of this Application;
- b. Approval and final allowance of compensation in the aggregate amount of $226,621.50 for professional services rendered to the Debtor during the Aggregate Period;
- c. Approval and final allowance of expenses in the amount of $6,176.58 for reimbursement of costs incurred by Foley during the Aggregate Period; and
- d. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
